- Appropriate services: Each patient of McLaren will be treated with respect, will be afforded appropriate physical access to health care.
- Effective communication: Each patient will be provided with effective means of communication that consider his/her hearing, speech, vision, and language needs.
- Respect: A patient is entitled to be treated with dignity and to receive care that is respectful of his/her personal, spiritual, and cultural needs.
- Privacy of rights: A patient is entitled to exercise his/her rights as a patient and as a resident from his/her residence, independent, community, discrimination, or hospital. All patients' civil and religious liberties, including the right to conscientious personal decisions, shall not be infringed.
- Confidentiality of records: A patient or former patient is entitled to confidential treatment of his/her personal and medical records. All third parties shall not be allowed access to this information without the prior authorization of the patient, except as required because of a transfer to another health care facility, or as required by law or a third party consent contract.
- Respect of medical records: A patient or former patient is entitled to request his/her medical records upon request, or to receive for a reasonable fee, a copy of the medical record.
- Privacy: A patient is entitled to privacy in his/her health care treatment and to control his/her personal records.
- Appropriate care: A patient is entitled to receive adequate and appropriate care.
- Advance directives: A patient has the right to make advance directives for his/her care, to designate someone to make decisions on his/her behalf, or to receive information on how to make an advance directive.
- Information about treatment: A patient is entitled to receive the following from the appropriate individual: information about his/her medical condition, proposed course of treatment, prognosis, the necessary and available choices for treatment, information on how the patient can understand it, a patient is entitled to receive who is responsible for and who is providing his/her direct care.
- Patient participation in care decisions: A patient is entitled to participate in decisions about his/her plan for treatment.
- Family participation in care decisions: A patient may choose whether or not to have family members involved in his/her care decisions.
- Refuse: A patient has the right to refuse the orders when he or she disagrees, including not to be treated in a person's substitute patient (including a carrier, his domestic partner), another family member, or a friend, and has the right to withdraw or deny such consent at any time. A patient's refusal will not be construed, treated, or otherwise denied insurance coverage on a basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, or disability.
- Experimental procedures/treatment: A patient is entitled to information concerning an experimental procedure proposed as part of his/her care and shall have the right to allow to participate in the experiment without accepting his/her continuing care.
- Cost Management: Every patient has the right to have his/her care assessed and reasonably managed.
- Refusal of treatment: A patient is entitled to refuse treatment to the extent permitted by law and to be informed of the consequences of his refusal. However, when a refusal of treatment presents a threat to the physical health of another person, appropriate care according to ethical and professional standards, MMG's policies may terminate the relationship with the patient.
- Freedom from restraint and abuse: A patient is entitled to be free from mental and physical abuse and from physical and chemical restraints, except those restraints prescribed by a clinical professional for reducing blood-sugar, seizure activity, or when confinement is necessary for the patient's safety in the implementation of such procedure.
- Reasonable safety: A patient is entitled to expect reasonable safety as to MMG's practice and personnel.
- Explanation of the bill: A patient is entitled to receive and examine an explanation of his/her bill, regardless of the source of payment and to receive, upon request, information relating to financial assistance available through MMG.
- No retaliation by the patient: A patient is entitled to file a complaint regarding services for MMG that are not included for therapeutic purposes in the patient's plan of care.
- Independent grievance/complaints: A patient is entitled to information about procedures for criticism, review, and resolution of patient complaints. A patient believes that he/she is not able to exercise any of the foregoing rights, the patient is invited to contact Patient Experience at (800) 363-3833.
