Your Rights as a Hospital Inpatient.

- You can receive Medicare covered services. This includes medically necessary hospital services and services you may need after you are discharged, if ordered by your doctor. You have a right to know about these services, who will pay for them, and where you can get them.
- You can be involved in any decisions about your hospital stay.
- You can report any concerns you have about the quality of care you receive to your QIO at: LVANTA 1-888-624-9906 or TTY 1-888-985-8775. The QIO is the independent reviewer authorized by Medicare to review the decision to discharge you.
- You can work with the hospital to prepare for your safe discharge and arrange for services you may need after you leave the hospital. When you no longer need inpatient hospital care, your doctor or the hospital staff will inform you of your planned discharge date.
- You can speak with your doctor or other hospital staff if you have concerns about being discharged.

See page 2 of this notice for more information.

According to the Medicare Rules for 2019, no person can expect to receive a collection of information unless it relates to a certain Medicare covered service. The user must contact Medicare for the information collection to which they apply. The data required to complete the information collection is contained in a separate information collection for that service collection. When making the request, please refer to the specific information collection and contact the information collector. If you have additional questions, or if you are unable to complete the request, please contact the QIO at 1-888-624-9906 or TTY 1-888-985-8775.
