Your Rights as a Hospital Inpatient:

- You can receive Medicare covered services. This includes medically necessary hospital services and services you may need after you are discharged, if ordered by your doctor. You have a right to know about these services, who will pay for them, and where you can get them.
- You can be involved in any decisions about your hospital stay.
- You can report any concerns you have about the quality of care you receive to your QIO at: LIVANTIA 1-888-624-9906 or TTY 1-888-985-8775. The QIO is the independent reviewer authorized by Medicare to review the decision to discharge you.
- You can work with the hospital to prepare for your safe discharge and arrange for services you may need after you leave the hospital. When you no longer need inpatient hospital care, your doctor or the hospital staff will inform you of your planned discharge date.
- You can speak with your doctor or other hospital staff if you have concerns about being discharged.

See page 2 of this notice for more information.

Additional Information (Optional):

Please sign below to indicate you received and understood this notice.

I have been notified of my rights as a hospital inpatient and that I may appeal my discharge by contacting my QIO.

According to the Medicare Rules for 2020, all patients are required to sign a confirmation of understanding at admission or within 14 days of admission. The 2020 rules could require the admission collection to show that the patient understands the admission collection is required to receive all Medicare benefits for the inpatient admission, which includes the inpatient portion of the benefit and complete and correct the admission collection. If you have additional questions or need assistance, please contact the Medicare office at 1-800-821-6517. For more information, visit: <https://www.medicare.gov>. Medicare is a federal program. Medicare is not a private insurance plan.
