The Helen M. Nickless Volunteer Clinic (HNVCLC) is an access point for meeting the primary health care needs of the economically disadvantaged residents of Saginaw County. Founded in 1982, HNVCLC is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. We serve with deep compassion and respect those who fall through the medical safety net and help them connect with local health resources by offering education, prevention and treatment.

Opened March 31, 2004
 Located at East Side Medical 3045, 1440 W. Center Road (corner of Center Road) Greenville, MI, 49745-4030. 989/894-4030 operates Wednesday evenings from 4:00 pm until the last patient is seen.

What We Do

- 1 full-time RN manages the clinic
- 1 full-time Clinic Coordinator maintains the office & assist patients via telephone Mon-Fri 9am-5pm
- McLaren Pharmacy Technicians work in the pharmacy during clinic hours.

Volunteers are drawn from a pool of over 300 individuals

- Licensed professionals include physicians, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, dentists, dental professionals, registered pharmacists, a counselor, nurses and other caregivers.
- Lay volunteers assist in the pharmacy, interview patients, provide clerical support and perform non-clinical tasks.
- Multiple medical operations and dentists in the Saginaw County clinic collaborate and treat the patient free-of-charge.
