PATIENT RIGHTS

All patients of McLaren Medical Group (MMG) have the rights listed below.

- No discrimination: A patient will not be denied appropriate care on the basis of race, religion, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, marital status, sexual preference, or source of payment.
- Appropriate services: Each patient of patient who is properly treated, will be afforded appropriate physical services to which they are entitled.
- Effective communication: Each patient will be provided with effective means of communication that consider his/her hearing, speech, vision, and language needs.
- Respect: A patient is entitled to be treated with dignity and to receive care that is respectful of his/her personal, spiritual, and cultural needs.
- Privacy of rights: A patient is entitled to exercise his/her rights as a patient and as a resident from requests, inquiries, comments, observations, or requests. All patients' civil and religious liberties, including the right to confidential personal decisions, shall not be infringed.
- Confidentiality of records: A patient or former patient is entitled to confidential treatment of his/her personal and medical records. All third parties shall not be allowed access to this information without the prior authorization of the patient, except as required because of a transfer to another health care facility, or as required by law or a third party consent contract.
- Respect of medical records: A patient or former patient is entitled to request his/her records of record upon request, or to receive for a reasonable fee, a copy of the medical record.
- Privacy: A patient is entitled to privacy in his/her health, in treatment and in caring for his/her personal needs.
- Appropriate care: A patient is entitled to receive adequate and appropriate care.
- Advance directives: A patient has the right to make advance directives for his/her care, to designate someone to make decisions on his/her behalf, or to receive information on how to make an advance directive.
- Information about treatment: A patient is entitled to receive the following from the appropriate individual information about his/her medical condition, proposed course of treatment, prognosis, for recovery and available choices for treatment, information on how the patient is understood, if a patient is unable to give who is responsible for and who is providing his/her direct care.
- Patient participation in care decisions: A patient is entitled to participate in decisions about his/her plan for treatment.
- Family participation in care decisions: A patient may choose whether or not to have family members involved in his/her care decisions.
- Refuse: A patient has the right to refuse the orders when he or she disagrees, including not to be treated, to receive a substitute patient (including a name his family member), another family member, or a third party, and has the right to withdraw or deny such consent at any time. A patient's refusal will not be construed, based on otherwise stated religious preferences, on a basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, or disability.
- Experimental procedures/treatment: A patient is entitled to information concerning an experimental procedure proposed as part of his/her care and shall have the right to allow to participate in the experiment without jeopardizing his/her continuing care.
- Pain Management: Every patient has the right to have his/her pain assessed and appropriately managed.
- Refusal of treatment: A patient is entitled to refuse treatment to the extent provided by law and to be informed of the consequences of his refusal. However, when a refusal of treatment presents a threat to the physical health or safety of the patient, or when a refusal of treatment presents a threat to the physical health or safety of others, a patient is entitled to be treated. A patient is entitled to be treated if a patient is unable to give informed consent and there is a clear medical need to do so, where a court order is necessary for the patient's safety or the implementation of such procedure.
- Research safety: A patient is entitled to expect reasonable safety as to MMG's practices and procedures.
- Explanation of the bill: A patient is entitled to receive and examine an explanation of his/her bill, regardless of the source of payment and to receive upon request, information relating to financial assistance available through MMG.
- No retaliation by the patient: A patient is entitled to file a complaint regarding services for MMG that are not included for therapeutic purposes in the patient's plan of care.
- Independent grievance/complaints: A patient is entitled to information about procedures for criticism, review, and resolution of patient complaints. A patient believes that he/she is not able to exercise any of the foregoing rights, the patient is invited to contact Patient Experience at (586) 222-3763.
