The image shows a poster titled "PATIENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES" with the McLaren logo. The poster is divided into several sections, each with a heading and a list of bullet points. The sections include:

- The Right to Receive Information: Lists rights such as receiving information in a language understood, receiving information in a format accessible, and receiving information in a timely manner.
- The Right to Make Informed Choices: Lists rights such as understanding the benefits and risks of a procedure, understanding the alternatives, and understanding the consequences of not having a procedure.
- The Right to Refuse: Lists rights such as refusing a procedure or treatment, withdrawing consent at any time, and not being discriminated against for refusing.
- The Right to Privacy: Lists rights such as having information kept confidential, controlling access to personal information, and having a say in who has access to personal information.
- The Right to Financial Rights: Lists rights such as understanding the costs of care, understanding the financial assistance policy, and understanding the financial consequences of not paying.
- The Right to Health Care: Lists rights such as receiving care that meets the standards of care, receiving care that is respectful and responsive to individual needs, and receiving care that is safe.
- The Right to Participate: Lists rights such as participating in decisions about care, participating in decisions about the organization, and participating in decisions about the community.
- Human Responsibilities: Lists responsibilities such as providing accurate information, following directions, and respecting the rights of others.

At the bottom of the poster, there is a contact information section for the Greater Lansing region, including the phone number 517-255-5000 and the website www.mclaren.org.
