The flyer is titled "US-127 REBUILD PROJECT" and "TRAFFIC INFORMATION TO HOSPITAL". It features a large orange diamond-shaped sign that reads "ROAD CONSTRUCTION AHEAD". The text on the flyer includes: "The Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) US-127-496 and I-96 to I-496 reconstruction is a major project that will span through the years 2024 and 2025. This project will impact traffic routes including to the McLaren Greater Lansing hospital campus. McLaren has worked closely with MDOT to ensure the hospital campus remains easily accessible for our patients and visitors." Under the heading "WHAT TO KNOW", it states: "March through November 2024: Northbound (NB) lanes will be under construction. All traffic traveling north and south through the I-96 corridor will be impacted. The southbound (SB) side of the highway." It also notes: "The NB ramp to Dundalk Road will be temporarily closed March - June 2024. Please follow the posted detour routes." A map shows the project area around the hospital. At the bottom, it says "Our patients and visitors are a top priority. Our hospital campus will be open and accessible during this project." and "RESOURCES MDOT project website: michigan.gov/127corridor". The footer contains the McLaren Greater Lansing logo, contact info (517) 875-6000, the website mclaren.org/lansing, a QR code, and the reference number MRKT-005 3.14.
