The image shows a preview of a brochure titled "PATIENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES" with the McLaren logo. The content is organized into several sections:

- Introduction: States that patients have the right to be treated with respect and dignity, and to be fully informed about their care.
- The Right to Be Treated with Respect and Dignity: Lists rights such as being treated with respect, privacy, and confidentiality.
- The Right to Be Treated with Fairness and Equality: States that patients should not be discriminated against based on race, ethnicity, or other characteristics.
- The Right to Be Treated with Compassion and Kindness: Emphasizes the importance of patient comfort and emotional well-being.
- The Right to Be Treated with Safety: Focuses on the patient's right to be free from harm and to receive safe care.
- The Right to Be Treated with Honesty and Integrity: Requires healthcare providers to be truthful and ethical.
- The Right to Be Treated with Respect for Personal Values and Beliefs: Acknowledges the patient's right to have their cultural and religious beliefs respected.
- The Right to Be Treated with Respect for Privacy and Confidentiality: Details the patient's right to control their personal information.
- The Right to Be Treated with Respect for Autonomy: Discusses the patient's right to make their own decisions about their care.
- The Right to Be Treated with Respect for the Right to Life: Addresses the patient's right to refuse or discontinue medical treatment.
- The Right to Be Treated with Respect for the Right to Die: Discusses the patient's right to request palliative care and end-of-life care.
- The Right to Be Treated with Respect for the Right to Report: Encourages patients to report any concerns or complaints.
- How to File a Complaint: Provides information on how to contact the Patient Rights and Responsibilities Office.

At the bottom of the brochure, there is a contact section for the Patient Rights and Responsibilities Office, including phone numbers and email addresses for various departments.
