If you encountered a McLaren Greater Lansing health care team member (for example: nurse aide, dietary, respiratory therapist, environmental services) who has made an extraordinary difference in your care or overall experience, we ask that you share your story and consider nominating this individual for the BEE Award. The BEE Award stands for Be Extraordinary Everyday. While the DAISY Award recognizes outstanding nursing care, the BEE Award recognizes the exceptional care and services delivered by hospital team members outside of the nursing profession. Please use the space below to share a specific situation or story that demonstrates how this individual made a meaningful difference in your care.

Team member name: _____

(There's more space on the back to continue your story.)

Thank you for taking the time to nominate an extraordinary health care team member for this award!
Please tell us a little about yourself.
