OUR USE AND DISCLOSURE OF YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION FOR TREATMENT, PAYMENT AND HEALTH CARE OPERATIONS

Your health information, linked with your name or other identifying information is used in many ways such as providing care, obtaining payment for your care and running our business. Disclosures of your

As permitted by HIPAA, Ohio and Michigan State laws, we may use or disclose your health information for several purposes. Here are some examples of how we may use or disclose your health information.

Treatment: We may use your health information to provide you with medical care in our facilities or in your home. We also may share your health information with others who provide care to you, such as hospitals, nursing homes, doctors, nurses, physician assistants, medical and nursing students, therapists, technicians, emergency service and transportation providers, medical equipment providers, pharmacies, and others involved in your care. For example, different hospital departments may share your health information to coordinate your prescriptions, laboratory, x-rays and other medical needs.

Payment: We may use and disclose your health information as needed to get paid for the medical care that we provide to you or to assist others who care for you to get paid for that care. For example, we may share your health information with a billing company or with your health insurance plan to obtain prior approval for your care or to make sure your plan will cover your care.

Health Care Operations: We may use or disclose your health information for our quality assurance activities and as needed to run our health care facilities. We may use your health information in combination with other patients' health information to compare our efforts and to learn where we can improve our care and services. We also may use or disclose your health information to get legal, auditing, accounting and other services and for teaching, business management and planning purposes. We may disclose your information to businesses and individuals (e.g., medical transcription service) who perform services for us involving health information as long as they agree to protect the privacy of that information.

Health Information Exchange (HIE): We participate in Health Information Exchanges such as Great Lakes Health Connect and CommonWell. As permitted by law, your health information is electronically shared with HIEs for the purpose of improving the overall quality of health care services provided to you (e.g., by avoiding unnecessary duplicate testing). Health Information Exchanges are required to maintain appropriate administrative, technical and physical safeguards to protect the privacy and security of your protected health information. Only authorized individuals may access the HIE and use your protected health information. You have the right to request in writing that we not disclose any of your protected health information to the HIE. Except for health information required by law to be shared with the HIE, you may 'opt-out' or restrict the sharing of your health information by contacting the Information Privacy Office listed at the end of this notice. disclosed: your condition described in general terms such as “good”, “fair”, “serious”, or “critical”. You have the right to request that this information not be released.

Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Care: We may share health information about you with a friend or family member who is involved in your medical care, with others whom you designate as involved in your medical care or with disaster relief authorities so that your family can be notified of your location and condition.

Patient Directory: We may include certain limited information about you in the patient directory while you are a patient at any of our hospitals. This information may include your name, location in the hospital, your general condition as well as your religious affiliation and may also be released to people who ask for you by name. You have the right to opt out of being listed in our patient and/or religious directory.

Research: Under certain circumstances, we may use or disclose health information about you, for research purposes, without your authorization. However, the information would be limited to health information needed in preparation for conducting research (e.g., to help look through records with specific medical conditions to aide in finding a cure). Research projects must be cleared through a special approval process before any health information is disclosed to the researchers and the researchers will be required to protect the health information they receive.

Releases Required by Law: We may use health information about you without your prior permission for several other reasons. Subject to applicable law, we may give out health information about you to other persons or entities to carry out their duties for (a) public health purposes (such as, births, deaths, public health surveillance); (b) abuse, neglect or domestic violence reporting; (c) health oversight audits or inspections; (d) coroners or medical examiner services; (e) funeral arrangements; (f) organ donation; (g) tracking of FDA-regulated products; (h) worker's compensation purposes; (i) emergencies, such as disaster relief efforts; (j) data de-identification; and (k) data aggregation.
